Dear Members of the Huron-Perth Catholic Community:

"Very truly I tell you, one of you will betray me." (John 13:22)

Have you considered how amazing it is that during Jesus' short time on earth, he taught us all that we ever need to know about life.

We have all experienced the hurt that comes when someone disappoints us or even worse, when we reach out to them and they turn away. Imagine how hurt Jesus felt knowing that one of his disciples was about to betray him.

Jesus tried so hard to reach out to Judas washing his feet and even making him part of that first Eucharist but Judas was not open to what Jesus was offering him.

As we approach Easter Sunday, it is a perfect time to really think about how ready we are to receive God. The Eucharist offers us the strength and support that only Jesus can provide.

Let us use these last few days of Holy Week to make sure we are ready to receive this gift.

May you truly "Rejoice in Hope".

Have a wonderful and blessed Easter.
